

Conflicts of Interest

Please declare any conflicts of interest that BRACE should be aware of. Conflicts may either be declared or be a reason to decline. See below for guidance:

Declare Conflicts where one or more of the following apply:

- Interests that may, or might appear to, influence your opinion. These are usually current interests but, on occasion may be previous interests
- Financial interests e.g. if the reviewer is a member of an organisation that may benefit, directly or indirectly, from any decision made.
- Any personal or family interest with someone involved in the proposal or who may benefit in any form from any decision made.

Decline to review where the Reviewer is:

- A close friend, or is closely related to the Applicant (s)
- Directly involved in the work the Applicant proposes to carry out
- Located at the same Department/Research Organisation as the Applicant(s), Co-applicant(s) or Project Partners
- Working closely with the Applicant(s) e.g. as a co-author or PhD supervisor or has done within the last 4 years.

If you are in any doubt as to whether one of these applies please contact BRACE at SAC@alzheimers-brace.org
